

How will my GCSE's, AS and A level grades be awarded?

Working out your grade	Evidence	Results and appeals
 Graded by teacher judgement	 Mocks, tests and work already done can be used as evidence	 Results days AS and A level 10 August GCSE 12 August
 Not graded by an algorithm	 Non-exam assessment should continue	 If you're unhappy with your grade, you can appeal it. First step is to submit an appeal to your school or college.
 School and college assessments can continue	 Non-exam assessments can be used as evidence even if incomplete	You can find out more details from your school, college or exam board, or by visiting the Ofqual website  www.gov.uk/ofqual
 You'll only be assessed on what you've been taught	 Art & design grade based only on your portfolio
 Your teacher will tell you what evidence is used to grade you	 Teachers can use question banks provided by exam boards if they want to
 Private candidates to work with a school, college or exam centre to provide evidence for them to be graded	 Results will be based on completed and future work, so keep doing your best

Can I appeal my grades if I am unhappy with my results?

Students can make an appeal to Ofqual. Please be aware of the following conditions below.

If you request a centre review or an awarding organisation appeal there are three possible outcomes:

- Your original grade is lowered, so your final grade will be lower than the original grade you received.
- Your original grade is confirmed, so there is no change to your grade.
- Your original grade is raised, so your final grade will be higher than the original grade you received.

Once a finding has been made you cannot withdraw your request for a centre review or appeal. If your grade has been lowered you will not be able to revert back to the original grade you received on results day.
